

How do you talk about language?

How do you tell people about your experiences talking new languages, and the reasons you have for deciding to learn other languages?

Please join the team of The New Speaker Network at Milk Café, Victoria Road, Glasgow on Saturday 24 June at 3pm for the launch of

The New Speaker Guide

a new mini-publication introducing the work of The New Speaker Network, a partnership of 28 countries working together to better understand the benefits and challenges involved in becoming a New Speaker.
